

Please read these terms of use carefully before using the site

Centena Group maintains this Web Site and all the information, communications, software, scripting, photos, text, video, graphics, music, sounds, images and other materials and services found on the Site (collectively 'Content'), for the use of its customers, employees and members of the general public but only for the lawful purposes described below. Such content is provided by Centena Group as a convenience to its customers and to the general public.

Fraudulent emails have been distributed that appear to have been sent by Centena Group, including by its Chairman, and that purport to invite investment in Centena Group or request that the recipient contact Centena Group "for possible business collaboration". These emails have not been sent by Croup or with their approval. Do not respond to these emails, provide personal information in response to them, or otherwise attempt to communicate with the senders. These emails are fraudulent and their sending is in breach of local and overseas laws. Centena Group does not, and will not, make contact with other parties in this manner. If you receive such an email please contact the I.T. department.
